POLAND'S WOMEN'S BATTALION DEMOBILIZES AND ORGANIZES PEACE TIME RESERVIST BODY

Feminine Defenders of Lemberg, Who Suffered More Than 100 Casualties, Don Civilian Clothes, But Announce Their Readiness to Go Into Action When the Call to Arms is Given Again.

By COL. ALEXANDRIA ZAGORSKA, Commander-in-Chief of Poland's Women's Battalion.

Colonel Zagorska, the generalissimo of the Legion of Polish Women, is a physician of Cracow. She was engaged in Red Cross work in Poland until 1918, when she formed the unit at Lemberg after losing her only son in the war. Her husband, also a physician, is a professor at Cracow University. The colonel is a pretty woman of quiet, graceful manner. She looks younger than her thirty-five years. She has a strong, refined face with a suggestion of humor always ready, but she looks every inch a soldier in her uniform of American khaki with three decorations for valor pinned on her breast.

Warsaw, June 16.—Poland's Women's Battalion, of which the world heard so much in the last two years, is being demobilized. The majority of its 3,000 members are returning to domestic pursuits after more than two years of military service. A small percentage will remain in Red Cross work or will be employed as instructors in military education for women in schools which are being set up for them in Warsaw, Cracow and other cities.

Our casualties have been little more than one hundred. We lost forty killed at Lemberg and about fifty at Vilna. Now that our task is done, and most of my soldiers will go to their homes, those that have them, to good wives and mothers, as women should.

It will interest Americans to know that two members of our battalion married members of General Healy's Legion of Polish-Americans, who came over to help in the critical days of the war and have returned with our demobilization scheme in the United States. I have never been to America, but I know all about it, because I am a great reader, and I know that the world finds great consolation in a new, prosperous country that has not been swept by armies.

One Company Remains.

Fifty of our women soldiers have married while in the service. If they married soldiers they continued in the battalion, in preference to returning home, as long as their husbands were also in the army. All those who have married have returned to domestic pursuits. In fact, when our demobilization scheme is completed all of the 3,000 members of the battalion will have left the service, except one company, which is still doing duty at Vilna.

Formed originally for the defense of Lemberg against the Ukrainians, it had been our intention to serve so long under arms, but the circumstances of war made it imperative. It has been a pleasure thus to serve our country, and many of us are loath to lay aside our uniforms. The company that I have on guard duty at the barracks here is the battalion's pride. It does not want to leave the service. Many of its members will go into the training schools.

Sed Up Women's Schools.

That is one of the reasons for the training school idea. The Government has been so impressed with the value of women in war that it has been decided to establish these schools for the military training of women. They will be set up in Warsaw, Cracow and other cities.

Already we have received 300 applications for admission to the school from the battalion members living in Lemberg. Where the legion was formed. More are coming in daily from other parts of Poland. It shows the splendid spirit of the Polish women. They are more coming in daily, responsible for keeping alive the outgoing spirit of the Polish youth through all our years of oppression under foreign governments.

These schools will provide the necessary military training for women officers in the military corps, in the telegraph, telephone and educational branches of the army. In other words, branches of the service which women so that in the event of war women can be spared for the fighting. Poland's answer to the crying need of preparedness is here. Right here I should correct the popular impression that all of our firing lines were in the actual front. As a matter of fact, only a small proportion of the women were placed in the line. Organized originally for the defense of Lemberg, the legion grew fast. Its members took their place in the line at Lemberg and later at Vilna, which

GOVERNOR IS HONOR GUEST AT EXERCISES

Middletown, Conn., June 16.—Featured by the largest graduating class in the history of the college, 20 class regiments, and with Governor Everett E. Lake of Connecticut one of the guests of honor, Wesleyan University's 89th Annual Commencement which takes place Monday, June 20, promises to be one of the largest and most notable ever held. Commencement activities begin Thursday night, the 16th, with the award of prizes and conclude with the alumni luncheon Monday afternoon.

Approximately 115 seniors will receive their bachelor's degrees this year. This is the largest class ever graduated from Wesleyan, and probably the largest that will be graduated in some time to come, as the entering classes are now limited in size. Several honorary degrees and master's degrees will also be conferred at the commencement exercises.

Governor Lake, Judge Watson T. Dumore, W. J. Upton, N. Y., representing the semi-centennial class of 1871, and Robert Newton Crane, '67, of London, Eng., will be the principal speakers at the alumni luncheon in Fayerweather Gymnasium immediately after Commencement. There is much interest in Mr. Crane's visit, as he was recently appointed Counsel to the King of England, being the first foreigner to become a King's Counsel.

Bishop Luther Barton Willson, D. D., D. D., resident bishop of the Methodist Church in New York city will preach the Baccalaureate sermon in Memorial chapel Sunday morning, the 19th, while Bishop Francis John McConnell, D. D., J. D. D., of Pittsburgh, Pa., will preach the university sermon in the evening. There will be a class day of the National Retail Hardware Association in the afternoon, and banquets, band concerts, campus illuminations and the president's reception also come Saturday.

BRING GEORGES LUCKY BELT

Paris, June 16.—The French liner Paris which began her maiden trip to New York yesterday, carried a belt which was given to her by the French government when she lights Jack Dempsey. It was accompanied by a "letter" from Baby Carpenter, the infant daughter of the champion boxer, who is now a year old. The letter, which is understood to be a number of crosses, representing kisses, made by Baby Carpenter while her mother, the champion boxer's wife, was in the hospital. The vivacity of the young lady explained the ink blots on the paper.

An eight year old girl, a neighbor of the Carpenter family, has begun to burn a candle to her favorite saint in supplication for a victory by her idol.

FOR HIGHER STANDARDS

Louisville, Ky., June 16.—Adoption of a program definitely establishing higher standards of retail hardware merchandising is the announced goal of the National Retail Hardware Association to be in annual session here this week of July 20.

Questions looking to more efficient hardware retailing will be the chief consideration of the delegates. Among the speakers will be a panel of eminence in business and government, although for the most part of the program will consist of discussions of vital subjects.

The business of the convention will be concluded Thursday, and Friday will be given over to a trip to Smooth Cave.

WHEAT CROP IN GERMANY IS IMPROVED

Berlin, June 16.—(By the A. P.)—The 1921 wheat crop of Germany will be of better than average volume, says a war veteran and agricultural expert. For the first time since the war the country finds itself with a surplus of wheat on the market. It is a fact, when our demobilization scheme is completed all of the 3,000 members of the battalion will have left the service, except one company, which is still doing duty at Vilna.

Formed originally for the defense of Lemberg against the Ukrainians, it had been our intention to serve so long under arms, but the circumstances of war made it imperative. FAIR COUNTERS TOTALLING UP COUNTRY'S GOLD

New York, June 16.—The largest amount of gold and gold certificates ever assembled in one place now is being counted piece by piece and note by note by four of the fastest counters in the employ of the United States government.

The task is to check up and determine the amount of gold and currency in the United States Treasury office here and was necessitated by a change in superintendents of the office. Neither Verne Boye, the outgoing superintendent, nor Isaac H. Smith, who succeeds him, would give the value of the money in the vaults but it is known to exceed $1,000,000,000.

The counting is expected to take one month.

GETS VERDICT OF $1,400.

Mary Alecki, mother of Constanti Alecki, received a verdict in her favor of $1,400 yesterday, at the conclusion of the quickest jury trial in Superior court record. The case was not started until yesterday morning.

Alecki sued Solomon Dryer for damages of $5,000 for the death of her son who alighted from a wagon at Crescent avenue and William street on Nov. 13, 1915 and was run over and killed by a jitney owned by Dryer.
